

JOB POSTING: INTERMEDIATE TECHNOLOGIST

ABBARCH Architecture Inc is a full service Architectural Firm that practices throughout Canada. Our area of specialization is in the demanding retail and commercial sectors. For more information, please refer to our website at www.abbarch.com.

ABBARCH's Toronto office has an immediate need to fill the position of Intermediate Technologist for large retail developments.

Qualifications include:

- 5 to 8 years of relevant local experience
- Advanced knowledge of BIM Software (Revit) and AutoCAD. Utilize BIM software to create 3D models and coordinate with project teams.
- Strong understanding of provincial building codes nationwide. Ensure that all drawings and designs comply with building codes, regulations, and standards.
- Ability to work both in a team setting and independently
- Ability to prioritize and manage tight deadlines for multiple projects
- Excellent communication, problem solving and negotiation skills
- Proficiency in Microsoft Word, Excel, Outlook and Adobe Acrobat
- Graphic skills and proficiency with Enscape, Adobe Illustrator and Photoshop is an asset

Duties include:

- Liaising with clients and project stakeholders
- Working on multiple projects with internal team members and consultants from design development to construction completion
- Prepare comprehensive construction documents, including plans, sections, elevations, and details
- Preparation and issuance of all deliverables (Permit, Bid, Construction, etc.)
- Coordinating and conducting scope trips
- Mentoring junior staff members

Please forward your resume to jhejie@abbarch.com. We appreciate the interest of all applicants however only those selected for an interview will be contacted. No agencies, telephone calls or walk-ins please.

Salary range $65 to $75 K.